COUNTRIES OF NEW YORK.-It appears from the Journal of Commerce that the total imports of foreign goods at New York for the month of July is about two and a half millions below the corresponding total for last year; and although considerably in excess of the amount landed there during the depression of 1858, it is eleven millions below the total itsports for July, 1857, the month in which the new tariff first took effect. The falling of is altogether in merchandise entered directly for consumption. The total imports since January tat is about twelve millions below the corresponding total for either 1859 or 1857.

The exports for the month of July have been very large, especially in domestic produce, the shipments being about 60 per cent. in excess of the aggregate for the same month in either of the preceding three years. Total exports of domestic produce for July, $7,525,713, against $4,938,069 for July of last year. The exports of flour have been nearly doubled as compared with the same period of last year; and in wheat and corn the increase is enormous, and is even in excess of the corresponding total for 1858. In cheese, lard and tallow the gain over either former season is very large, and the items are reaching an amount altogether unprecedented. ALMANAC.

There were several paintings symbolizing the ains and objects of the Constitutional Union party, and over all was suspended the motto. The Constitution of the Country, the Union of the States, and the Enforcement of the Laws. At about 9 o'clock the meeting was called James R. Smoot. to order by Benjamin Ogle Tayloe, esq , President of the Bell and Everett Club, and in doing this Mr. Tayloe expressed the gratification he felt at greeting so large an assemblage on so interesting an occasion, to ratify the nominations of two citizens and patriots every way worthy of the high places with Canal. which their names are connected. He would call upon one, the friend and intimate of Mr. Clay, and who was with him during his last illness, to preside over the meeting; he referred to Philip R. Fendall, esq. A WALK AMONG THE BLACK DIAMONDS.-The magnitude of the Coal trade, of this city may, in some sort, be estimated by the statement of the receipts of coal, riu the Alexandria Canal, which are from, time to time, published in the Cazette; or in the increased length of our Marine list. But, a visit to the coal wharves, during business and that he asks for a continuance of patron- hours, will best alford an idea of the extent of the trade, and its importance to the com- late Reuben M. Whitney, esq., and wife of Dr.

Idle men are out of place among the Black Diamonds of the coal wharves. Every man there, especially at this season of the year, earns his bread, literally "by the sweat of his brow." It is not too much to say that andrin, at 3 o'clock, P. M. on Friday, (this day,) more hard work is done at the coal wharves | the loth last. of Alexandria, in one week, than in ten rural Court-houses in a month.

Passing through a herd of nules and horses that gather near the outlet lock in any part which happens to be shaded from the sun, you reach the elevated platforms which have been built above the wharves. and may survey the busy scene around. At this one wharf six vessels are receiving their cargoes. The whir of the "running tackle," and the noise of the coal as it is "dumped" into the hold of the vessel, mingles with the roar of the waters, that-after an inland travel of many miles-tumbles over the outer lock-gate, and, after a long separation, of instruction is intended to develop the intellectory rejoins the Potomac. WHITE SULPHUR WATER FROM THE WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, GREEN-BRIER COUNTY, VA.—The long established reputation of the WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS for the cure of Chronic diseases, renders comment upon their medicinal efficacy unnecessary.

For many years the waters of these Springs Run Station, from all the Stations on the Road, and from the 16th to the 18th inst. with the same beneficial effects that have resulted from their use when drank fresh at the fountain

These waters are gently APERIENT and very decidedly ALTERATIVE. Their great forte as a remedy, and the quality above all others that has given to them their high reputation, is their alterative power, or their peculiar operative influences, by which they stimulate Glandular secretions, resolve Chronic inflamations, occreome obstructions in the smaller vessels, and throw off morbid accumulations from diseased organs, thus producing the alterative or profound changes demanded in almost every case of Chronic disease. As an APERIENT and ALTERATIVE, the range of diseases to which they are applicable will be apparent to medical men -- such for instance, as Chronic affections of the Stomach, Bowels Liear, Kidneys, Skin, de., de. Upon the functions of the organs generally, they exert marked effects, stimulating those that are inactive, and establishing healthy secretions in such as have departed from a normal condition.

In DYSPEPSIA and in Chronic irritations of nucous coat of the Stomach and Bowels, they are employed with the happiest results. In the various forms of LIVER DISEASE, their superior efficacy has been long and firmly established.

CHRONIC DIARRHŒA is often cured by them, after other remedies have been ineffectually

To COSTIVENESS of the Bowels and to PILES, they are well adapted. In the several forms of KIDNEY and BLAD-DER AFFECTIONS, unattended with inflamation, they are very serviceable. To the several forms of CHRONIC OBSTRUC-TIONS, &c., peculiar to females, their alterative influences are often eminently useful. NEURALGIA and the various nervous diseases, when they are the result of organic derangements, are treated with great success by these waters. In CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, their known efficacy is coeval with the early history of the Springs.

As a palliative of a most excellent effect in GOUT, their value has been long appreciated.
In MERCURIAL DISEASES, and that peculiar affection that results from the abuse of Mercury in SYPHILITIC affections, a full course of the Water stands unrivalled in its curative powers. 720 Pamphlets descriptive of the medicinal character and applicabilities of the Waters furnished gratis, on application to the Agents. These waters, securely put up at Springs in glass bot les, are now being regularly furnished to the Agents in Richmond, for the sup ply of the general public. To prevent imposition, each bottle has the words, "GREENBRIER WHITE SULPHUR WATER." blown in the glass, without which none s genuine. Orders from individuals, and the trade throughout the United States,, should be directed to
